December 1963

In 1911, when the old glass house area was chosen for the site of the Lincoln Memorial, there was strong opposition, as it was considered remote and inaccessible. The famous and testy Speaker of the House, "Uncle Joe" Cannon, protested, "Don't put it here, boys. Why, the malarial ague from these mosquitos would shake it to pieces".

A LETTER FROM THE PRESIDENT

As the calamity of last month has deprived the Nation of its leader, so it has also deprived our City of a powerful spokesman and advocate, whose great interest and concern for the District was an inspiration to those who strive to make this City a better place to live.

But our new President, with almost unbelievable speed and skill, has assumed the singular challenges of the office.

In one of his early statements, President Johnson pointed out his 30-year residence in Washington and showed his concern for our problems. We have lost one advocate; but in his place, we have another.

And so, in President Johnson's own words, "Let us continue."

William L. Simon
President, FBRA

DISTRICT AFFAIRS COMMITTEE

Alex E. Wiskup, Chairman

Precinct No. 3 has been notified of the following apparent parking violations in the area:

S. W. Corner of 26th and Eye Streets
S. E. Corner of 25th and Eye Streets
Lot between 906 and 908 New Hampshire Avenue
818 - 820 - 25th Street
Alley behind 822 - 25th Street

As yet no answer has been forthcoming; but understandably, the police have been occupied with other matters lately. However, we intend to keep after them as well as other District departments where a number of other matters are pending.

About the only way we can find out about violations - parking and otherwise - is for our members to let us know when they notice them; so don't hesitate to call either Bill Simon or Alex Wiskup, or use the mails.

PROGRAM COMMITTEE

Bernice Teuteberg, Chairman

As was previously announced, our Program for the meeting of December 30 will be a musical one.

On that Monday evening we will have the pleasure of hearing the Foggy Bottom Chamber Music Group play a program of baroque music. Members of the group are: Charlotte Eisler, who plays the harpsichord; Bernard Mason, who plays the violin; and Joel Wheeler, who plays the recorder.

Charlotte Eisler, at whose Foggy Bottom apartment the group meets, is founder of the organization. She has given a full-length piano recital in Washington, appeared four times as guest pianist with the Agriculture Symphony Orchestra, and once as the guest artist with the Arlington Symphony Orchestra. She has accompanied instrumentalists and vocalists at the National Gallery, Barker Hall, and other Washington auditoriums. She is a budget analyst at the Department of Agriculture.

Bernard Mason, violinist, is professor of orchestral instruments at the Howard University. He took the Bachelor of Music degree at Oberlin Conservatory and his Masters at the University of Michigan. An ardent chamber music player, he particularly enjoys string quartet work.

Joel Wheeler, the recorder player, has appeared in a number of concerts of early music here -- three sponsored by the Smithsonian Institution, three by the Washington Recorder Society, several in both Virginia and Maryland, and one at the Phillips Gallery.

Please note that there will be no business meeting at the December 30th meeting. The entire evening will be devoted to music.

We think this promises to be an interesting program and we look forward to seeing all of you there.

Merry Christmas and Happy Holidays!

THE WESTERN MARKET

There seems to be increasing support in the area at the present time for citizens to take a stand to save Western Market, located at 21st and K Streets. An appeal to the District Commissioners and Congressional District Committees is planned by members of the market and they have appealed to the public to sign petitions opposing the sale of the property.

The market has, for nearly 100 years, provided the residents of the metropolitan area a place to purchase from area farmers fresh produce, and from individual merchants located in the market, quality foods, meat, poultry, cheeses and other dairy products from this country, Canada and Europe, French styled meats, pates, escargots and other delightful comestibles, fruits and vegetables, seafood, baked goods, and barbecued chicken. The market has in its confines a florist and a Safeway. It has been the subject of many artists' canvases.

To the great distress of many to whom the market has become a well-nigh irreplaceable way of life, a plan is underway to sell the market property, along with the present Third Precinct Police Station. The supporters of the market are asking Bottomites to join with them to try to keep this historic site, and urge you to sign the petition (near the K Street entrance of the market), and write to the following to voice your opposition to the sale: Hon. The following is the famous editorial written for the NEW YORK SUN by Francis P. Church, September 21st, 1897:

IS THERE A SANTA CLAUS?

We take pleasure in answering at once and thus prominently the communication below, expressing at the same time our great gratification that its faithful author is numbered among the friends of THE SUN:

"Dear Editor -- I am 8 years old.

"Some of my little friends say there is no Santa Claus.

"Papa says, 'If you see it in THE SUN it's so.'

"Please tell me the truth, is there a Santa Claus?

"Virginia O'Hanlon,
"115 West Ninety-fifth Street."

Virginia, your little friends are wrong. They have been affected by the skepticism of a skeptical age. They do not believe except they see. They think that nothing can be which is not comprehensible by their little minds. All minds, Virginia, whether they be men's or children's, are little. In this great universe of ours man is a mere insect, an ant, in his intellect, as compared with the boundless world about him, as measured by the intelligence capable of grasping the whole of truth and knowledge.

Yes, Virginia, there is a Santa Claus. He exists as certainly as love and generosity and devotion exist, and you know that they abound and give to your life its highest beauty and joy. Alas! how dreary would be the world if there were no Santa Claus! It would be as dreary as if there were no Virginias. There would be no childlike faith then, no poetry, no romance to make tolerable this existence. We should have no enjoyment, except in sense and sight. The eternal light with which childhood fills the world would be extinguished.

Not believe in Santa Claus! You might as well not believe in fairies! You might get your papa to hire men to watch in all the chimneys on Christmas eve to catch Santa Claus, but even if they did not see Santa Claus coming down, what would that prove? Nobody sees Santa Claus, but that is no sign that there is no Santa Claus. The most real things in the world are those that neither children nor men can see. Did you ever see fairies dancing on the lawn? Of course not, but that's no proof that they are not there. Nobody can conceive or imagine all the wonders there are unseen and unseeable in the world.

You tear apart the baby's rattle and see what makes the noise inside, but there is a veil covering the unseen world which not the strongest man, nor even the united strength of all the strongest men that ever lived, could tear apart. Only faith, fancy, poetry, love, romance, can push aside that curtain and view and picture the supernal beauty and glory beyond. Is it all real? Ah, Virginia, in all this world there is nothing else real and abiding.

No Santa Claus! Thank God! he lives, and he lives forever. A thousand years from now, Virginia, nay, ten times ten thousand years from now, he will continue to make glad the heart of childhood.

ADULT CLASSES OFFERED IN 39 SUBJECTS

Adult classes in 39 different subjects, ranging from Ballet to Silversmithing, will reopen at six District of Columbia Recreation Department Adult Centers in the first two weeks of the new year. Many of the classes are free, with others requiring a small fee to cover the costs of materials used in the course.

A partial list of subjects offered includes: classes in art (in several media), bridge for beginning, intermediate, and advanced players, twelve interesting crafts, social, Latin American and folk dancing, slimnastics, four foreign languages -- French, Hebrew, Russian, and Spanish -- a number of music classes and groups, law for the layman, investment and financial management, first aid, and flower arrangement.

For a complete list of subjects showing the centers nearest you and registration information on classes, call ADams 4-2050, Extension 8.

HAVE YOU SENT IN YOUR ASSOCIATION MEMBERSHIP DUES ?

The Association Membership Roster is published on pages 6, 7 and 8 of this issue. The Roster is current as of 13 December 1963. We are quite proud of the very substantial increase in membership the past several months and congratulate Rufus Lisle and his committee for an outstanding job. However, to provide a more representative voice of Foggy Bottom, we need many more residents as members. If you have not already done so, please send your dues ($3 renters, $5 owners) to Rufus Lisle at 2525 Eye Street - today.

HOME RULE

To rule or not to rule.

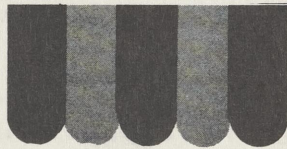

The Association has discussed this subject of Home Rule before, particularly when we had Representative John Kyl of Iowa speak at our March meeting.

However, the Association has never taken a position on the matter. Representative Kyl's bill is now in the Congressional hopper. He advocates making a Federal City out of the Capitol, White House and the Mall, and ceding the balance of the District back to Maryland. Do we want to become Free Staters?

There are a number of other Home Rule bills in the Congressional hopper also.

At one of our future meetings the membership will discuss and vote on whether the Association is for or against the principle of Home Rule -- so get your thinking caps on and polish up your oratory!

FROM OUR CHURCHES

May the Blessings of Christmas abide with You throughout the New Year

The Concordia United Church of Christ, 20th and G Streets, N. W., extends the season's sincerest good wishes to all readers of the Foggy Bottom News.

May the joy and peace of the Christ-Child singularly bless every home with happiness. No season of the Christian Church Year unites Christians and non-Christians in such a spirit of good-will as does this season with its emphasis on the dignity of man and the hopes for peace on earth. May we welcome these turbulent times as an omen of the fulfillment in a greater measure of those values for which man has yearned throughout the centuries.

We most warmly welcome all readers to our Christman service on Christmas morning at 10 o'clock. A service in the German language will be held Christmas eve at 8 o'clock.

Henry C. Koch, D.D.
Pastor

St. Paul's Parish greets its friends and neighbors in Foggy Bottom, and wishes for you all every joy this Christmastide.

The church is open daily from 6:30 A.M. until 6:15 P.M., and we hope that you will come in at any time. The church will be decorated with greens on Christmas Eve and they will be kept until the 13th of January (the Octave of the Epiphany).

We believe that God's love of us is revealed in the holy birth at Bethlehem, and that this love is for each one individually, and for all. We respond to this love personally as we offer our Christmas worship. There follows the necessity for us to express love also towards others. This is the root of all our good fellowship and the reason for the giving and receiving of Christmas cards and gifts.

A happy and holy Christmas.

James Richards
Rector, St. Paul's Church

The Holy Feast of Christmas commemorates the Birth of Jesus Christ, the Son of God, in the stable of Bethlehem.

We celebrate Christ's Birthday best by preparing our hearts well to receive Him worthily, and by endeavoring to live according to His sacred teaching. In our daily lives, we should each try to be "Other Christs" to one another.

During the Christmas Holidays, I extend a cordial invitation to visit St. Stephen Martyr Church, 25th Street and Pennsylvania Avenue, Northwest.

I wish you and all your loved ones a very Happy and Blessed Christmas.

Rt. Rev. Msgr. Joseph F. Denges
Pastor

The Slumbering Shepherd never saw the angels nor heard their song. So he wondered what all the excitement was about when his friends went off in haste to Bethlehem. Undoubtedly only a few shepherds were touched by the heavenly glory and perhaps they knew that the angel glory was a gift of vision and hearing to souls of sensitive faith.

If the slumbering shepherd had been awake he would not have been aware! Only the artist sees the statue in the block of marble! Only the poet says to the skylark, "hail to the blithe spirit!" Maybe you won't hear an angel chorus on this coming Tuesday night, but — it would be wonderful if you did, wouldn't it? Believing is seeing. An experience of worship is an experience in faith so that heart does open to heaven.

C. Lewis Robson, Minister
Union Methodist Church

We suggest that all readers of the NEWS attend the Christmas services at the church of their choice.

FOGGY BOTTOM'S "PETER HOUSE" STUDIO

This portrait of Ruth St. Denis was painted at the old Peter House on K Street when the "First Lady of the Dance" "sat" for Daniel Millsaps who, for several years had a studio there. The large (5'x7') tempera picture was done to be used as a poster in the Dupont Plaza Theatre when "Miss Ruth" gave a lecture there in a farewell appearance. The picture is called "Freedom" and is taken from the dancer's re-enactment of an earlier dance -- known by that name -- when she was younger and still performing.

Ruth St. Denis is now in semi-retirement but is in the process of starting The Ruth St. Denis Dance Center in Hollywood and is working on another book about her life and experiences in the dance. She is to make an appearance with her former husband and dancing partner, Ted Shawn, at Jacob's Pillow next summer.

The artist Millsaps says that his days in the studio in Foggy Bottom were some of the happiest and the most productive years in Washington. Many prominent visitors and collectors came to call and buy his works at the famous Peter House. It was there that Dan collaborated with Congressman Usher L. Burdick on the arts bills which came before Congress during the Eisenhower Administration. Those bills are the fore-runners of the one now before the Senate to establish a National Arts Foundation similar, in some respects, to the Science Foundation.

Mill�aps continues to practice his art in Washington and has, at the same time, become the Washington editor of Art Voices, the magazine published in New York. He is also a co-publisher of the Washington International Art Letter, along with Dorothea Ward and Robert De Shazo.

REGISTRATION OPENS JANUARY SECOND

This is a reminder to all qualified Foggy Bottomites that the registration polls will open on January 2nd. As of this writing, the location for registration has not been announced; but, in all probability, Stevens School (21st Street between K and L) will serve this area.

In conjunction with registration, the headquarters of both political parties are searching for volunteers who can spend any amount of time, however small or great, in working with the Committees. There are a number of "jobs" open - from addressing and stuffing envelopes on up . . .

This is a bi-partisan appeal to Bottomites to participate in the forthcoming activities of registration and the elections. Volunteers should contact their District Committee, or - Democrats contact area captain, Mrs. Susan P. Perry at 296-6662; and Republican volunteers should contact Mr. Rufus Lisle, at 333-3090.

MUDDY WASHINGTON CIRCLE

It won't be muddy forever. At least, so we're informed by a National Capital Parks representative.

The delay in the repaving and landscaping of Washington Circle has been due to the fact that the costs are being shared by the Federal Government and the District -- which means just that many more channels through which to feed the paperwork before any action can result.

But, bids for the work are now being taken, and the contract should be let "shortly". NCP hopes to have the work completed by June, at the latest.

The plans call for flagstone and exposed aggregate paving. The landscaping will include an evergreen hedge - separating the walkways from traffic, and over 150 trees and shrubs which will include American Beeches, Sawtooth Oaks, Japanese Yews, and three varieties of Flowering Crabs. There will, of course, be park benches throughout.
